Highlights of the week!

Message from head boy/girl

Hello, my name is Kyra and I am the new head girl for Selwyn Primary. I am looking forward to leading the school with Miss Mawer and changing Selwyn for the better.

My name is Stanley, I am the new head boy and I am looking forward to working with all the children, parents and staff and making Selwyn a fun environment to learn and work in.

Attendance

Last week's winners:

KS1 - 1E
KS2 - 6P

Well done to the winners!

Year 1 Park Trip

Last week the children went for a walk to look at the physical and human features of the park, they also looked at the leaves changing for Autumn which linked to their geography learning.

They had a great time as you can see!

Clipboards

We have purchased brand new clipboards for the children to use when they are on educational visits. We were able to do this using some of the funds raised at our school discos and last year's Summer fayre. Thank you for your continued support for all of our community events.
